ANNOUNCEMENTS

Dance at Gardner Lake July 20th. THE UNBELIEVER

Coming to the Davis Next Week-Produced in Co-operation With the U. S. Marine Corps.

You may think that your patriotism has reached the highest point, that rothing can move you to a deeper feeling, and that you thoroughly appreciate the importance of every branch of the military service, but no to see George Kleine's The Un-

Tuesday and Wednesday, and you'll learn a great deal about the service that figures prominently in newspa-ter dispatches and in war, but it never much in the public eye, the Marine much in the public eye, the Marine Corps.

The Unbeliever was produced by Thomas A. Edison in cooperation with the United States Marine Corps. Realizing the tremendous power and appeal of the screen, the government in the early stages of war preparation requisitioned this power and has been wielding it, first, through The Star Spansled Banner, and now through The Unbeliever, which is bused on a little volume written by Mary Raymond Shipman Andrews called The Three Things.

A detail of United States Marines from New London will accompany the picture Monday night and will ap-

BREED THEATRE

Lest We Forget, a Massive Ten-act Film Spectacle, Showing the Sinking of the Lusitania and Starring Beautiful Rita Jolivet, Feature For Today and Saturday.

Today and tomorrow, Lest We For-Today and tomorrow, Lest We Forget, the great firm spectacle showing the sinking of the Lustania is the feature attraction at the Breed theatre. This screen representation of the great disaster that shook the world was transferred onto the screen under the guidance of an eye witness, the international star, beautiful Rital Jolivet, who is seen in the lending rale, therefore what her eyes have seen yours shall see.

This couldn't be a seen and showing the standard screen for the guidance of the great disaster that showing the standard screen also accessible Seashore Farms.

This mighty ten-act production provides a panorama of events now historical, connected with the opening days of the war. It shows far more of actual events abroad during the great struggle of decency against barbarism than any one person, whether combatant or non-combatant, could possibly see. Besides being a great love story it is a valuable chemicle of the war.

You will see the salling of the Lusi-

You Must Sell Yourself

(Forbest Magazine.)

SULPRI METERS Life is a "selling problem," that is all; And every man is his own line of goods;
And what the price is, big or very small
Is simply up to him. For though the woods
Are full of buyers for his sort of stock He's got to learn the way to sell himself Or he'll discover, with a cruel shock,

That he's a marked-down remnant on the shelf.

So to begin with he must try to be An article of value, sound and fair: For if he isn't-take this straight from me-He'll find the market sluggish everywhere, But, having worth, he must let buyers know He's on the market to supply their need. He's got to learn to make his value show

So plainly that whoever runs may read. That doesn't mean that he must boast and shout His own high quality; but it does mean That he must make it clear, beyond a doubt. By pep and push, that he is on the scene. He mustn't miss a chance to prove his worth And make his merit patent to men's eyes: The chaps who get the highest price on earth Are those who have the goods-and Advertise.

So watch your opportunities, and dwell Upon the job your whole existence through. Yourself is all the goods you have to sell And what you get is wholly up to you!
